Your computer systems are critical to your business. Is your maintenance program working for you? At Accent, we work with your staff to establish consistent support processes and to earn your trust and respect. Our goal is to help you make the most of your IT investment and prevent down time.

Why choose Accent?

Accent is based here in Vancouver, Washington. When you call us, our certified technicians are never far from your location. This means a faster response time, which is critical to resolving your important issues.

Our client relationships are extremely important to us. We work hard to communicate with your staff. Our technicians get to know your system inside and out. They listen to your needs and address your concerns with every contact.

We only send experienced technicians to perform your support. From day one, your account is assigned two technicians to ensure you are receiving effective, personalized service.

If you have a question, we have an answer. Whatever your needs, from server design and maintenance to disaster recovery, you can rest easy knowing Accent technicians are the very best at what they do.
